SUSPENDED FOR FIFTEEN DAYS.—
The case of Officer Banner T. Young, charged by Lieutenant Smith with being drunk and disorderly last Thursday night and of violating a rule governing. night and of violating a rule governing the police force by entering a saloon and drinking a bottle of beer, came up again before Mayor dimpson this morning. The cas, it will be remimbered, was post somed last Saturday in order that the partender who, it was alleged, had a ryed the policeman, could appear. Mr. Young had denied drinking the beer and the lieutenant nositivaly as beer and the lieutenart positively as-sert in the he oil. This morning the accused acknowledged the truth of the lieutenant's accusation as to the charge of entering the saloon and drinking the of ent-ring the saloon and drinking the beer. The Mayor thereupon summed up the case and recapitulated the charges. He said that according to the evidence, the charge of drunkenness had n t been proven, nor had that of disorderly conduct, as Mr. Young's violet t language had not been of a nature to dis'urb the public peace and bad only it racted the attention of the officers on duty. Such conduct was, however, unbecoming an officer. The charges, therefore, were narrowed down to the simple one of violating a rule which forbids an officer then er a calcon and drick liquor. While it was an usulessant duty, he was compelled to if fit a penalty for a violation of the rule referred to, and would therefore eu-pand the accused for fifteen days without pay. without pay.

Assaulted and Roberd -Mr. J. Sidney Sm t1, residing at 1125 Prince street, yesterday morning reported to the pairs that he had been knowned. the polic that he had been knocked down and robbed by an unknown colored man at the intersection of Feirfax and Princess streets at 1:15 o'clock the previous night. The thief secured $10 and a valuable pistol. At the time of the robbery Mr. Smith was standing at that the control of the robbery Mr. Smith was standing at the robbery Mr. Smith was standing at that thoroughfare, and was purchasing clams from William Jackson. Mr. Smith is employed as a clerk in the general office of the Southern Railgay Company, in Washington. Policeman Knight vesterday evening arrested Dennis Carter, colored, on suspicion of having committed the theft. Carter decirate charge. The case was called in the Police Court this morning, but several material wit essees being absent in the Police Court this morning, but several material wit esses being absent it was adjourned until tomorrow morn-ing.
